First off, what kind of writer are you or see yourself becoming?
And what kind of information would you like from us? Who would you like to meet on this site? Which lesbian writers?
What questions would you like us to ask them?

I like to write short stories - mostly I feel moved when I meet a lady for the first time so the stories are about what 'could be' The stories are short - about 2 pages

Hi Professor

It is cool to meet a fellow writer. I've written a few flash fiction (less than 1000 words) which I have submitted to some competitions. If you are keen on writing a Science Fiction/Fantasy, there is an annual short story competition being run by Nova, <http://www.sfsa.org.za/> if you are interested.

Keep up with the writing!

Cheers
