if it were made into a movie? I saw this on another forum and thought it was a brilliant question!

So If I made Stay by Nicola Griffith into a movie I'd get Charlize Theron to play Aud. She's got the height, the blue eyes, the strength in her character and body. She'd be awesome... and the best part is that there are 3 books in the series so Charlize playing a confident kick-ass dyke in 3 movies - yum!:P

And the Spanish Pearl, hmmm not sure, I'll have to think about that one.
